

• Name: Norio Sato, MD, PhD

• Current Position: Professor, Department of Aeromedical Services for Emergency and Trauma Care
Ehime University Graduate School of Medicine

• Country: Japan

• Educational Background:

1995 Graduate from Ehime University of Medicine

• Professional Experiences:

1995-1997 Clinical fellow, Department of Emergency and Critical Care Medicine at Nippon Medical School Hospital

1997-1999 Clinical fellow, Department of general surgery at Saiseikai Kanagawa prefectural Hospital

1999-2001 Assistant professor, Department of Emergency and Critical Care Medicine at Nippon Medical School Hospital

2001-2002 Clinical Staff, Department of Emergency and Critical Care Medicine at Aizu Central Hospital

2002-2006 Resarch fellow. Department of Surgery at The University of Texas at Houston

2006-2010 Assistant professor, Department of Emergency and Critical Care Medicine at Nippon Medical School Hospital

2011-2016 Senior Lecturer then Associate professor, Department of Emergency Medicine at Kyoto University Hospital

2017-present Professor, Department of Aeromedical Services for Emergency and Trauma Care
EhimeUniversity Graduate School of Medicine

• Professional Organizations:

Board Certified Surgeon of the Japanese surgical society

Board Certified Member of the Japanese Association for Acute Medicine

Board Certified Intensivist of the Japanese Society of Intensive Care Medicine

Board Certified Member of the Japanese Society of Parenteral and Enteral Nutrition

Board Certified Educational doctor of the Japanese Society of Abdominal Emergency Medicine

Board Certified Member of the Japanese Respiratory Care Medicine

• Major

Emergency medicine, Critical care medicine, Trauma care, Acute care surgery, Nutrition
Aeromedical services (Doctor Helicopter)